Folkmanis Acts It Out with Puppets

The Sky Dragon, from Folkmanis Puppets, has sculpted fabric that enhances its ethereal look. This champion of mythical creatures is destined to guide kids into the realms of fantasy.

Ideal as a Mother Goose, the Goose puppet's movable beak and two-handed wing design allow for endless combinations of humorous honking, flapping, singing, snapping, sputtering, and storytelling.

With the Monkey in Barrel puppet, kids can pull the monkey down into the soft microfiber barrel and close the lid. Then, they can pop the monkey out for a playful surprise.

Guessing with PlaSmart

Morphology, from PlaSmart, is a hilarious guessing game where creativity wins. First, pick a card; there are 480 words to inspire, challenge, and create. Next, create a word with the more than 30 pieces included to help build the word. Then, animate the pieces to make the word come to life. Finally, get your teammates to guess the word within one minute. The first team to reach the final lily pad wins. Morphology is designed for children ages 8 and up.

Outset Media Shows Cards and Puzzles

New to the blank Create Your Own Puzzles line, from Outset Media, are Create Your Own Puzzle Theme Boxes. Children can choose a coloring puzzle theme and get started coloring their own unique puzzles. Each of the themes—dinosaurs, fairytale princesses, and nature—include three 24-piece puzzles to color and assemble.

The Family Scavenger Hunt card game is a find-the-clue card game with indoor and outdoor clues included. The card pack is perfect for camping trips. The Picture Charades card game doesn't require any reading, so kids can play easily with their friends. The Family Charades card game allows families or groups to play against one another in teams as adults and kids act out the clues together.
