Contents

110 MILD cards, 110 SPICY cards,
110 EXTRA HOT cards, 6 pencils,
1 score pad, 1 answer pad

Object of the game

Couples are challenged to answer a host of revealing questions about their love life, their preferences, and their personal habits. All you must do is guess exactly how your partner will answer. Guess correctly to win points. But do you tell the truth or should you bluff? If you bluff, how sure can you be that your partner won't reveal the truth! With three "levels" of questions – mild, spicy, or extra hot – players can decide how much they want to reveal about their personal lives.

Before you start

Decide which card deck you will be playing:

- MILD cards - perfect for players who don't want to reveal any of their intimate secrets.
- SPICY cards - more risqué, but still not too intimate or embarrassing.
- EXTRA HOT cards - best suited for players who don't mind sharing... everything!

Place the appropriate card deck on the table, and return the other two decks to the box.

Select a cool team name, and divide into teams with someone you are dating or are married to.

Choose one player to act as the question reader and another player to act as the scorekeeper. The scorekeeper should write each team name on the score sheet. Each player will need a pencil and their own answer sheet.

Playing the game

The question reader selects the top card from the deck and reads the question out loud. Then place the card in the center of the table so all players can reread the card. Every player must write down their answer. There is no need to answer truthfully – bluffing is allowed.

Now players take turns guessing how their partner answered, immediately followed by their partner revealing how they actually did answer. One point is earned for each correctly guessed answer.

At the end of the round, the scorekeeper gives each team either 0, 1, or 2 points.

Select the next card and repeat!

Winning the game

At the end of 10 rounds, the team with the most points win the game!

Cheating

Watch out for cheating! It's easy for couples to smile, stare, blink, or play footsies in an effort to communicate with each other. Players should always be alert for secret signals! Any couple caught cheating must remove their pants for the duration of the game. If a couple gets caught a second time off go their shirts. Get caught a third time, and the couple will have to finish the game in the nude. So, if you do cheat, don't get caught!
