

Rules

★ OBJECT ★ ★

In Legless, players compete by calling out different words relating to a given topic. The player that can't come up with a word must take a drink and loses a "life".

★ ★ BEFORE YOU START ★ ★

This game can be played using non-alcoholic beverages. When choosing to play with alcoholic beverages, please drink responsibly. It is never acceptable to drink and drive.

Make sure everyone has a tall glass, filled nice and high with everyone's favorite beverage. Also, each player will need 5 coins which keep track of their "lives".

Shuffle the card deck and place it face down in the center of the table.

★ ★ PLAYING THE GAME ★ ★

The oldest player begins (let's call him Steve). Steve flips over the top card and reads a topic. Steve chooses either the black or yellow category.

Starting with the person to Steve's left, players must call out something in the given topic. For example, if the topic is Indian Food, the person to Steve's left (her name is Cindy) may call out "Butter Chicken" or "Vindaloo" or "Chana Masala". Georgette is next, but she falters...

Players can falter by:

- (a) Not coming up with a new example.
- (b) Repeating a word already given.
- (c) Calling out something irrelevant.
- (d) Taking too long to answer (house rules determine how long a player has).

Georgette loses a "life" and gives up a coin, plus takes a one-finger forfeit.

The card is returned to the bottom of the deck, and Georgette (the player who lost the round) flips over the next card, and play continues as above.

To determine how much to drink for a one-finger forfeit, simply line up the top of your index finger with the top of the liquid in your glass. Now drink until the liquid is level with the bottom of your finger.

Once a player loses five “lives” they are out of the game and must chug the rest of their drink.

★ ★ WINNING THE GAME ★ ★

The last player with any “lives” remaining is the winner.
